To Whom It May Concern:

The following is a summary of the basic fees including the estimated living expense and required Medical Insurance for International Visiting Students enrolled in September 2020 – August 2021.

In order for the ISO to issue a Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status (Form DS-2019), the student must demonstrate financial support to meet or exceed the following minimum funding requirements for the full period of the student's academic appointment.

Please note that Registration Fee and Student Activity Fee is assessed per term, therefore, the total minimum funding requirement varies by term and duration of the appointment.

Estimated Monthly Expense:	Single Student	Married Student
Average Living Expense	$ 2,935	$ 3,635
Student Health Plan Insurance Per Month*	$ 272	$ 577
Total Expenses per month:	$ 3,207 +Term Fee(s)	$ 4,212 +Term Fee(s)

* Figures are subject to change without notice

**Additional expense for family with children is estimated $500/m for the 1st child and $292/month for each additional child. For students who have child dependents only, the additional expense per month is estimated at $865 for the first child (for living expenses and medical insurance) and $292 for each additional child.
